h carnings of the Harriman of $487,000 in not earnings, and Pacific $346,000 This show isually good exhibits. In spite of the terpretation placed upon the state ways a favorable contrast with more than $700,000, was cut almost in half last month, by reason of a reduction in operating expenses of $357,000, the loss in gross carnings having been virtually the same in both months. Southern Paclife's net caturings in February fell off $522,000.

Trading was less active than yesterday, the market growing dull on the decline. There was little pressure to sell stocks on the decline, bear traders carring to operate boldly at this time. sell stocks on the decline, bear traders fearing to operate boldly at this time. The morrhing's gains were eliminated in most cases and the close showed small losses on the day, in place of the correspondingly small advances of the previous days of the week.

Certain isolated issues, including local traction stocks, were strong, Canadian Pacific, which attracted much attention early in the year by its spectacular advance, came to life again to-day and mounted to 227 3-4, a new high price. Amalgamated Copper was coday and mounted to 227 3-4, a new high price. Amalgamated Copper was heavy, probably on account of the selling of stocks purchased earlier in the week.

Trading in United States Steel was less active, but that stock constituted the market's barometer, in that buying and selling of these shares were closedly scrutinized by those who think the immediate future of the market is dependent upon conditions in the steel and iron industry.

While no official statement as to the cutcome of yesterday's gathering of steel manufacturers was fortheoming, it was said to-day that the disposition of the manufacturers was fortheoming, it was said to-day that the disposition of the manufacturers was to maintain prices for the present. No definite action was taken, and it is understood that the subject may come up again at a gathering of these same interests which is to be held next week.

Referring to the Prompt

Manner and careful attention given to the collection of real estate notes left with this Company for collection and credit to his account, an old resident, but still a young man, said to us yesterday:

"I am so much pleased with the way Mr. handles my collections that I wish to add to my balance, and have just handed to him a good-sized check for my credit."

That kind of commendation is greatly appreciated, and it leads us to suggest to bank customers generally to occasionally pass up to your banker an appreciative word. You have no idea how it helps!

We invite personal and inactive accounts and pay 3 per cent. on same.
